1 Maybe the residents of Nevada are right. Maybe it's best to make a Nuclear dump near Chicago, or New York, or San Francisco. Perhaps an area where there's nothing but desert and wasteland for miles is not such a good idea. Perhaps they're right, the dump needs to be near a highly populated site.

Of all the arguments I hear no one ever comes up with another place to put the waste, so if not Yucca Mountain why not Oscar Goodmans back yard? This might improve the Mayors disposition.
